

SUMMER STUDENT JOB OPPORTUNITIES WITH CONFERENCE SERVICES

Conference Services invites applications from qualified students to fill the following positions for the upcoming conference season: April 22nd to August 30th, 2019. Some positions require that applicants be enrolled full-time this academic year and returning to school full-time in the fall. If approved, some positions may be funded by a source of funding for student summer jobs such as Canada summer Jobs (CSJ).

Please submit a cover letter and your CV (including two references) to Marie-Claude Renaud, Conference Services Manager by email conferenceservices@grenfell.mun.ca or in person in office AS235.

Deadline: Sunday, March 31st, 2019 (before midnight)

CONFERENCE SERVICES SUMMER STAFF (7 positions available)

(Casual/Call-in as required in May and June and will develop into full-time in July and August)

The chosen candidates will be expected to cover and help with all of the responsibilities below:

Reservations/Office Clerk

Receive and process reservations for accommodations; respond to inquiries; receive payments; reconcile daily receipts; issue keys; prepare daily accommodations reports (in-house, arrivals, departures etc.); issue linens; ensure adequate supplies; set-up breakfast; other duties as required.

Laundry Worker

Ensure adequate supplies of linens for guest rooms; coordinate and perform laundry services; transport linens to and from laundry room; re stock storage areas; other duties as required.

Conference Worker/Bedmaker

Move and arrange tables, chairs, staging, equipment for conferences and events; deliver and retrieve tables around campus; prepare rooms and make beds prior to the arrival of guests; liaise with laundry worker regarding linen supply; transport linens to and from residence and apartments; inspect rooms; other duties as required.

Qualifications, Skills, Experience and Attributes:

- Experience working in client service or in the hospitality industry
- Experience working with conference groups or event planning
- Bilingualism is an asset
- Strong oral and written communication skills are essential with knowledge of business communications
- Strong computer skills are required.
- Ability to prioritize work, manage multiple tasks and meet deadlines.
- You must be a customer oriented individual and a team player.
- Experience with laundry equipment is an asset.
- Willing and eager to work shift work/flexible hours, including evenings and weekends and to perform manual/physical work.
- Attention to details is required

Remuneration:

The Conference Services staff will be paid an hourly wage of $13.80.

For more information, visit www.grenfell.mun.ca/conferenceservices-jobs or call 637-6255 or visit the Conference Services office in AS 235.